Judges

Bethany Whitehead

Bethany has been an engaged arts administrator for more than 20 years, supporting artists, their work, and the community that benefits from artistic engagement. She believes in the power of art and the importance of artistic connection. She's worked at the Walker Art Center, the Playwrights' Center, Banfill-Locke Center for the Arts, the American Craft Council, the Metropolitan Regional Arts Council and has served on the board of the Women's Art Registry of MN, RainTaxi Review of Books, FilmNorth, and the Minnesota Prison Writing Workshop. Currently, she runs ARTichoke Consulting which helps artists with the business side of being an artist, and is the general manager of Open Book in Minneapolis. She earned a MA from St. Mary's University in Arts Administration.

Jonathan Thunder

Thunder infuses his personal lens with real-time world experiences using a wide range of mediums. He is known for his surreal paintings, digitally animated films and installations in which he addresses subject matter of personal experience and sociopolitical commentary. Jonathan is an enrolled member of the Red Lake Band of Ojibwe, and makes his home and studio in Duluth, MN.

He has attended the Institute of American Indian Arts (IAIA) in Santa Fe, NM and studied Visual Effects and Motion Graphics in Minneapolis, MN at the Art Institute International. His work has been featured in many states, regional, and national exhibitions, as well as in local and international publications. Thunder is the recipient of a 2020-21 Pollock – Krasner Foundation Award for his risk taking in painting. Since his first solo exhibit in 2004, he has won several awards for his short films in national and international competitions. His painting and digital work is in the permanent collections of multiple Museums and Universities. In 2022, Thunder has been awarded a McKnight Visual Artist Fellowship.

Notes:

Special thank you to:

All the artists that make this show possible!

"Thank you for sharing your work with not only us but the world.

Being an artist is often a vulnerable path. You make something so deeply personal and then present it to the world with an open heart.

Not everyone is so fearless.

Thank you for reminding us of what's possible.

It is invigorating to see you dedicating your life to what brings you joy. By pursuing these passions despite the risks and fears, you inspire us to do the same.

Thank you for what you create.

Art can speak things that can't always be said with words. Through your craft, you help others to evoke and validate their emotions, providing comfort that we are not the only ones feeling a certain way."
